

NMMS FAQ:

1. This is scheme from MHRD
2. Students must be currently studying 8th standard
3. Only for students studying in government and government aided schools
4. Students should have minimum 55% in their 7th standard for general category and 50% for SC/ST category students.
5. The family income should not exceed Rs 1,50,000 per annum
6. Students should submit their original caste and income certificates during exam registration.
7. General category students need not submit caste certificate. All the students who do not submit their caste certificate are by default considered as general category students.
8. Income certificate should be latest (issued not more than a year ago)
9. The awardees of the scholarship should have a bank account in their name. This can be a joint account with a parent also.
10. Once the results are declared, the students should register themselves in the NSP (National Scholarship Portal) to claim the scholarship.
11. The scholarship amount once the results are declared are directly credited in the bank account of the student that is provided in the NSP registration form.
12. If the student do not register in NSP for the first year, then the whole scholarship is lost for all 4years.
13. The student has to renew the registration on 2nd, 3rd and 4th years to claim the scholarship.
14. If the renewal is missed for one year, then the scholarship is lost for the rest of the years.
15. The amount is credited once a year for 4 years
16. After 10th standard, if the student joins a government college, the institute name should be updated in the NSP form. All the institutes should be registered in NSP.
17. If the students joins a private college, then the scholarship is not awarded.
18. The students should maintain a minimum of 55% for general category and 50% for SC/ST category in all the standards to clam the scholarship. IF the student fails in one year, the scholarship will be stopped